The Gathering

As the bell rings, we stand to sing the first hymn (NEH 473):

When morning gilds the skies, My heart awaking cries:
 May Jesus Christ be praised!
 Alike at work and prayer, To Jesus I repair;
 May Jesus Christ be praised!

The night becomes as day When from the heart we say:
 May Jesus Christ be praised!
 The powers of darkness fear When this sweet chant they hear:
 May Jesus Christ be praised!

In heaven's eternal bliss The loveliest strain is this,
 May Jesus Christ be praised!
 Let earth, and sea, and sky From depth to height reply,
 May Jesus Christ be praised!

Be this, while life is mine, My song of love divine:
 May Jesus Christ be praised!
 Sing this eternal song Through all the ages long:
 May Jesus Christ be praised!

Greeting

+ In the name of the Father, and of the Son, and of the Holy Spirit.
Amen.

Grace, mercy and peace from God our Father and the Lord Jesus Christ be with you

Penitential Rite

Almighty God, our heavenly Father,
 we have sinned against you, through our own fault,
 in thought and word and deed, and in what we have left undone.
 We are heartily sorry and repent of all our sins.
 For your Son our Lord Jesus Christ's sake, forgive us all that is past;
 and grant that we may serve you in newness of life
 to the glory of your name.
 Amen.

Lord, have mercy, Lord, have mercy.
 Christ, have mercy, Christ, have mercy.
 Lord, have mercy, Lord, have mercy.

Breaking of the Bread

We break this bread to share in the body of Christ.

Though we are many, we are one body,
because we all share in one bread.

As we prepare for Holy Communion we sing the Agnus Dei.

Lamb of God, you take away the sins of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, have mercy on us.

Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world, grant us peace.

Invitation to Communion

Behold is the Lamb of God, who takes away the sins of the world.

Blessed are those who are called to his supper.

Lord, I am not worthy to receive you, but only say the word, and my soul shall be healed.

All are welcome to receive Holy Communion if you do so in your own church. If you would prefer, please come forward and bow your head for a blessing. Please do not intinct—it is forbidden by our bishops and dangerous for coeliacs. Please follow the directions of the Sides-people. If you are watching online or don't want to receive Holy Communion, you may like to use the following prayer:

My Jesus, I believe that you are present in the Blessed Sacrament,

I love you above all things and I desire you in my soul.

Since I cannot receive you now sacramentally, come at least spiritually into my soul.

As though you were already there I embrace you and unite myself wholly to you;

permit not that I should ever be separated from you. Amen.

Post Communion Prayer

Holy God, we see your glory in the face of Jesus Christ: may we who are partakers at his table reflect his life in word and deed, that all the world may know his power to change and save. This we ask through Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.

Please be seated for the notices after which we sing the final hymn (NEH 456). After the Blessing and Dismissal the clergy and servers leave during the organ voluntary. You are invited to remain in your seats for this final act of worship.

Teach me, my God and King, In all things thee to see,

And what I do in anything To do it as for thee.

A man that looks on glass, On it may stay his eye;

Or if he pleaseth, through it pass, And then the heaven espy.

All may of Thee partake; Nothing can be so mean,

Which with this tincture “for thy sake” Will not grow bright and clean.

A servant with this clause Makes drudgery divine;

Who sweeps a room as for thy laws, Makes that and the action fine.

This is the famous stone That turneth all to gold;

For that which God doth touch and own Cannot for less be told.

Lord, Jesus Christ, only Son of the Father, Lord God, Lamb of God, you take away the sin of the world; have mercy on us;

You are seated at the right hand of the Father: receive our prayer.

Glory to God...

For you alone are the Holy one, you alone are the Lord,

you alone are the most high, Jesus Christ, with the Holy Spirit, in the Glory of God the Father. Glory to God...

Collect

Let your merciful ears, O Lord, be open to the prayers of your humble servants; and that they may obtain their petitions make them to ask such things as shall please you; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever. Amen

First Reading: I Kings 19:9-18

At Horeb, the mount of God, Elijah came to a cave, and spent the night there. Then the word of the Lord came to him, saying, “What are you doing here, Elijah?” He answered, “I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away.” He said, “Go out and stand on the mountain before the Lord, for the Lord is about to pass by.” Now there was a great wind, so strong that it was splitting mountains and breaking rocks in pieces before the Lord, but the Lord was not in the wind; and after the wind an earthquake, but the Lord was not in the earthquake; and after the earthquake a fire, but the Lord was not in the fire; and after the fire a sound of sheer silence. When Elijah heard it, he wrapped his face in his mantle and went out and stood at the entrance of the cave. Then there came a voice to him that said, “What are you doing here, Elijah?” He answered, “I have been very zealous for the Lord, the God of hosts; for the Israelites have forsaken your covenant, thrown down your altars, and killed your prophets with the sword. I alone am left, and they are seeking my life, to take it away.” Then the Lord said to him, “Go, return on your way to the wilderness of Damascus; when you arrive, you shall anoint Hazael as king over Aram. Also you shall anoint Jehu son of Nimshi as king over Israel; and you shall anoint Elisha son of Shaphat of Abel-meholah as prophet in your place. Whoever escapes from the sword of Hazael, Jehu shall kill; and whoever escapes from the sword of Jehu, Elisha shall kill. Yet I will leave seven thousand in Israel, all the knees that have not bowed to Baal, and every mouth that has not kissed him.”

Please remain seated as the Choir sings the psalm appointed for the day (Psalm 85. 8-13)

*I will hearken what the Lord God will say; * for he shall speak peace unto his people, and to his saints, that they turn not again unto foolishness. For his salvation is nigh them that fear him; * that glory may dwell in our land. Mercy and truth are met together: * righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Truth shall flourish out of the earth, * and righteousness hath looked down from heaven. Yea, the Lord shall show loving-kindness; * and our land shall give her increase. Righteousness shall go before him, * and shall direct his going in the way.*

Second Reading: Romans 10:5-15

Moses writes concerning the righteousness that comes from the law, that “the person who does these things will live by them.” But the righteousness that comes from faith says, “Do not say in your heart, ‘Who will ascend into heaven?’” (that is, to bring Christ down) “or ‘Who will descend into the abyss?’” (that is, to bring Christ up from the dead). But what does it say? “The word is near you, on your lips and in your heart” (that is, the word of faith that we proclaim); because if you confess with your lips that Jesus is Lord and believe in your heart that God raised him from the dead, you will be saved. For one believes with the heart and so is justified, and one confesses with the mouth and so is saved. The scripture says, “No one who believes in him will be put to shame.” For there is no distinction between Jew and Greek; the same Lord is Lord of all and is generous to all who call on him. For, “Everyone who calls on the name of the Lord shall be saved.” But how are they to call on one in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in one of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone to proclaim him? And how are they to proclaim him unless they are sent? As it is written, “How beautiful are the feet of those who bring good news!”

Please stand for the gradual hymn (NEH 455) :

Strong Son of God, immortal Love,
Whom we, that have not seen Thy face,
By faith, and faith alone, embrace, Believing where we cannot prove;
Thou wilt not leave us in the dust; Thou madest man, he knows not why,
He thinks he was not made to die: And Thou hast made him: Thou art just.
Thou seemest human and divine, The highest, holiest manhood, Thou;
Our wills are ours, we know not how;
Ours wills are ours, to make them Thine.
Our little systems have their day; They have their day and cease to be;
They are but broken lights of Thee,
And Thou, O Lord, art more than they.

Holy Gospel: Matthew 14:22-33

Jesus made the disciples get into the boat and go on ahead to the other side, while he dismissed the crowds. And after he had dismissed the crowds, he went up the mountain by himself to pray. When evening came, he was there alone, but by this time the boat, battered by the waves, was far from the land, for the wind was against them. And early in the morning he came walking toward them on the sea. But when the disciples saw him walking on the sea, they were terrified, saying, “It is a ghost!” And they cried out in fear. But immediately Jesus spoke to them and said, “Take heart, it is I; do not be afraid.” Peter answered him, “Lord, if it is you, command me to come to you on the water.” He said, “Come.” So Peter got out of the boat, started walking on the water, and came toward Jesus. But when he noticed the strong wind, he became frightened, and beginning to sink, he cried out, “Lord, save me!” Jesus immediately reached out his hand and caught him, saying to him, “You of little faith, why did you doubt?” When they got into the boat, the wind ceased. And those in the boat worshiped him, saying, “Truly you are the Son of God.”
