1800 L'eucharistie en français : culte de l'Eglise d'Angleterre chaque samedi en français à St Georges, Paris. Il inclut des hymnes, des chants et une homélie. Le culte, qui sera suivi de rafraîchissements, dure 45 minutes environ

0830 Holy Communion from the Book of Common Prayer (1662) is a traditional service lasting 25 minutes and has no hymns or sermon. It uses the language of Archbishop Cranmer and is one of the foundational texts of the English language. There is a short booklet that helps you follow the service.

1030 The Solemn Eucharist

This is the centre of our week at St. George's and our main service. It lasts approximately 75 minutes with hymns, a sermon and incense. During this service we enjoy our Choir, the Sunday School for the children and the Crèche for the young ones.

The service is always followed by drinks in the parish hall and there is usually a delicious lunch available for those who would like to stay.

1630 Messe Malgache

Twice a month the Malagasy community meets for the Eucharist in Malagasy.

About our preacher—Fr Iain Osborne:

I am so looking forward to sharing Holy Week with St George's Paris in 2025. If not with you, I would be in Ely cathedral, where my day-job is as Senior Chaplain and Strategy Advisor to the Bishop of Ely. But wherever we find ourselves, I suspect this year we will all approach Holy Week in a similar way - simply as people, battered by grief and horror in the daily news, longing for God to act and speak. So we will tell again the old story of injustice and betrayal, fear and grief, surprise and quite unexpected joy. And we will interrogate the cross and the empty tomb: for meaning, and the challenge of hope.
